

Florida Announces Shortlist of Financial Advisors for P3 Program

01 Jul 2009 | USA | Roads

Ila Halai

The Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) has announced a list of financial advisors which are shortlisted to support its P3 program and provide other financial advice as needed.

The department released an invitation to negotiate (ITN) on April 29.

The firms that made the cut (sorted by highest score) are:

- Jeffrey Parker & Associates;
- Castalia/ Taylor-DeJongh;
- KPMG;
- PRAG;
- Deloitte;
- Infrastructure Management Group (IMG)/ Raymond James/ PEG.

Firms that submitted but failed to make the shortlist were:

- Goldman Sachs;
- PwC;
- Scott Balice Strategies;
- Public Financial Management Group;
- Lazard Freres and Co;
- Ron Baker & Associates;
- Value Tech Realty Services.

The next steps for FDOT will be to conduct negotiations with the shortlisted firms and then determine intended awards.

FDOT may select multiple firms to provide services up until June 30, 2011.

Related News

30 Apr 2009 - FDOT Seeks Financial Advisors for P3 Program

Research printed from Infra-Americas
©2009 Infra-Americas

Back

©. All rights reserved.